1. Newly submitted claims 18-26 and 36-44 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons:

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 9-17 and 27-35, drawn to an audio apparatus/method including reading device, designation information inputting device, designation information responsive recording method selecting device, and reproducing device, classified in class 369, subclass 53.37.
- II. Claims 18-26 and 36-44, drawn to an audio apparatus/method including reading device, identification control information responsive recording method selecting device, and reproducing device, classified in class 369, subclass 47.16.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as with video recording apparatus/method. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 18-26 and 36-44 withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 9-14, 17, 27-32, and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Endoh et al.

Note the front cover, figures 52-70, column 1, line 26 – column 2, line 64, column 5, lines 33-57, column 8, line 66 – column 11, line 21, and column 28, line 21 – column 40, line 43.

4. Claims 15-16 and 33-34 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Applicant's arguments filed 4/7/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In re applicant's argument, Endoh et al. discloses a system/method that records and reproduces audio using plural selectable encoding modes, i.e., the claimed "different in recording method", as shown in figures 56 and 64-70.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
